OPERATION ST. PIERRE

1. SITUATION
   A. The enemy: The enemy has been spotted in the town of MORTON, and is on its way to establishing large forces of infantry and tanks.
   B. Other own forces: 2x assault teams of type infantry with support from Pathfinders (who have carried out reconnaissance in the last 2 days.)

2. MISSION: Take out the enemy and make them unable to establish themselves in MORTON.

3. EXECUTION: On order:

   I. PLAN

   Pathfinders:
   - Maintain established observation records and report as much information as possible to the KO, as well.
   - On orders, provide fire support to attack teams A + B.

   Alpha:
   - Move in to act as the commander's main assault force with a focus on enemy infantry and release potential hostages (civilians). When observing tanks, Lead fire support from Bravo.
   - Coordinate fire support on "soft targets" with Pathfinders.
   - After missions, lead withdrawal with Bravo back to base.

   Bravo:
   - Escort me to the command post ahead of the main attack.
   - Advance to act as the commander's main assault force, focusing on tanks and armoured vehicles from a suitable fire support base.
   - Be prepared to act as the boss's agency when needs arise
   - After mission, establish Rendezvous Point for Alpha and Pathfinders.

   II. OPERATIONAL RULES:
   - "1life-rule". If you die, you spawn back in the base, and will be inserted as QRF if at least 4x your own die.
   - ROE: Until order, return fire (only if fired upon)
